

PACIFIC RESEARCH JOURNALISM PROJECT 2018

Brief: Paid project for 10 hours a week for both semesters as a journalist on assignment for the Pacific Media Centre working for the NZ Institute for Pacific Research attached to the University of Auckland's Centre for Pacific Studies at the Fale on campus (Building 273, 20 Wynyard St). The task entails:

- Interviewing Pacific researchers involved in projects for the Institute and writing profiles about them and their research projects
- Writing blogs on topical Pacific research issues for publication on the Lali blog: <http://www.nzipr.ac.nz/lali/>
- Creating and editing video and audio storytelling on research projects and personalities, and
- Covering occasional news events and items as required by the NZIPR.

NZIPR project contact and manager: Dr Gerry Cottrell

g.cotterell@auckland.ac.nz +64 9 923 9563

Pacific Media Centre director: Professor David Robie (AUT contact). Some stories will be republished on PMC's Asia Pacific Report: <https://asiapacificreport.nz/>

Applications: Please write an application with an accompanying CV and references stating reasons why your Pacific experience or knowledge would be ideal for this position to:

Professor David Robie david.robie@aut.ac.nz

copied to the School manager Edelita Clark edelita.clark@aut.ac.nz

Shortlisted applicants: They will be interviewed and the selected student will be required to complete a contact with the School of Communication Studies and start as soon as possible. The successful applicant will be briefed about the job by Dr Cottrell and Professor Robie.

2017 portfolio: www.pmc.aut.ac.nz/projects/pmc-collaboration-media-project-nz-institute-pacific-research